ORDER:

The case of the petitioner in brief is that the members of the petitioner-Society are in occupation of lanka lands in Survey No.190/45 of Devarapalli Village, Totlavalluri Mandal, Krishna District. According to the petitioner the land admeasuring Ac.82.76 cents is being cultivated by the members of the petitioner-Society by digging bore wells. They allege that the third respondent is instigating outsiders to cultivate the land allegedly damaging the land. Therefore, the present writ petition is filed seeking a direction to the respondents not to interfere with the land.

Along with the writ petition the petitioner enclosed a Xerox copy of the order in W.P.M.P.No.4222 of 2004 in W.P.No.3196 of 2004, ordering status quo with regard to the possession of the land. The said writ petition was filed by the petitioner herein and it is not denied before this Court that it was filed for similar relief. When the petitioner has already filed one writ petition, this writ petition is not maintainable, whatever be the reason. If there is any violation of the orders passed in the earlier writ petition, the petitioner has to avail different remedy.

The writ petition is misconceived and is accordingly dismissed. No costs.
